Let’s Talk Canned Chicken

NCC Health & Wellness

Available: As 10 oz cans, sometimes larger, packed in water.

Select: Undented cans. Discard any cans that are dented, rusted or leaking, along with any cans that contain black or brown contents.

Storage: Keep canned goods stored in a clean, dry area, where the temperature is kept at or below 75 degrees F.

Store unopened 2-5 years. Cans generally have a “best by” rather than an “expiration date.”

Keep food stored away from chemicals, like cleaning supplies and other toxins.

Rinse can top before opening.

Once opened, use within 5-7 days in a separate container in the refrigerator or freezer.

Nutrition: Excellent source of shelf-stable protein.

Five Easy Ways to Prepare:
(see recipes below for more details)

1.) Use as a taco topping
2.) Make chicken salad
3.) Make chicken soup
4.) Make pot pie
5.) Make chili

- Canned chicken can be like using canned tuna.
- It has less of distinct flavor, so it is more flexible than tuna.
- It tastes best in recipes where minimum cooking time is required, like cold salads or dishes that are quickly reheated with added spices.

Food Safety Tips

1.) Clean: Make sure you use hot, soapy water to clean your hands, utensils and all items that touch food prior to starting. Wash fruits and veggies before prep, but not meat, poultry or eggs!

2.) Chill: Keep cold foods cold. Refrigerate cut produce ASAP and store between 32 to 40 degrees F. Frozen foods should be keep below 32 degrees F.

3.) Separate: Keep raw meat, poultry and seafood away from ready to eat foods. Watch those cutting boards!

4.) Cook: Be sure to check internal cooking temperatures of food.

Fruits: Whole fruits are better than juice.
1 cup of fruits equals:
• 1 cup raw or cooked fruit; or
• ½ cup dried fruit; or
• 1 cup 100% fruit juice

Vegetables: Eat a rainbow of colors, including dark green, red and orange. Fresh, frozen and canned are all ok!
1 cup of vegetables equals:
• 1 cup raw or cooked vegetables; or
• 2 cups leafy salad greens; or
• 1 cup 100% vegetable juice
