

Interdisciplinary Courses

Students are required to take one designated Interdisciplinary course to graduate. The Interdisciplinary course will meet the College Core requirement in the Humanities, Social Science or Science area. The following courses meet the Interdisciplinary requirement:

- BIO 180 Prin. of Environmental Science (3-credit)
- BIO 181 Environmental Science (Science requirement 4 credit course with a Lab)
- IDS 210 The Creative Voice (Humanities requirement)
- IDS 230 Great Books (Humanities requirement)
- IDS 220 Individuals and Society (Social Science requirement)
- IDS 225 Global Issues (Social Science requirement)
- SCI 114 Survey of Science (Science requirement)