

Open Electives

Open electives are additional courses students may take to meet graduation requirements beyond their College Core Requirements and specific major requirements. Open electives are defined as any credit course offered by the College with the exception of courses below the 100 level. Selected ESL credit courses may be used as open electives.