ePortfolio RUBRIC

NOTE: This is only the grade for the ePortfolio itself; it does not account for the assignments that are included, which will be graded separately.

Your ePortfolio must include:

(This is where you would list the kinds of artifacts, reflections, images, etc., that you identified should be included in the eP. One possible page is below.)

1. Welcome page (engaging and w/photo; introduces by name)

Context & Reflection:

- 1. No context or reflection evident; only the artifact is visible
- 2. Establishes purpose of assignment OR observation on what was attempted and accomplished, but shows limited reflection.
- 3. Establishes purpose of assignment AND observation on what was attempted and accomplished, but one of these parts is undeveloped.
- 4. Establishes purpose of assignment AND observation on what was attempted and what was accomplished in thoughtful and developed way (though can be brief).

Design:

- 1. None to minimal visual detail; basic elements without elaboration; includes limited additions or nothing other than text
- 2. Some attention to visual detail; goes slightly beyond basic template; includes some additions other than text
- 3. Exceptional visual detail apparent (such as creative use of font, color, pictures, & multimedia)

Awareness of Audience

- 1. Shows little to no awareness of audience through tone, choice of artifacts (photos, videos, etc.), and little evidence of proofreading.
- 2. Awareness of audience is limited and only some of the following are evident: tone and artifacts are appropriate for an academic presentation; tone is welcoming and friendly; personality is expressed; proofreading is somewhat evident.
- 3. Shows heightened awareness of audience: tone and artifacts are appropriate for an academic presentation; tone is welcoming and friendly; personality is expressed; proofreading is evident.
