Sharon Abrams has over 25 years’ experience in Management and Administration in both hospital and medical office settings.

Jacqueline Algon, Advanced Master Gardener, was the coordinator of the Bethel Master Gardener Program and has lectured on horticultural topics. She has also done extensive training and teaching in her career in the pharmaceutical industry and is on the Wilton Tree Committee and the Wilton Conservation Commission. Additionally, she serves on the steering committee of the Pollinator Pathway.

Michael Aloi, CFP, is a Certified Financial Planner™ professional with 20 years’ experience helping people plan for their financial future.

Judith P. Audevard is President and Founder of the Hudson Valley Paws for a Cause Pet Therapy Program. Her work has been recognized by prominent organizations like the United States Military Academy at West Point and the American Red Cross.

Sandra Adamczyk, A.S., has taught yoga, dance, and strength training throughout Fairfield County for over 20 years. Her lifelong education has equipped her with the expertise to access students’ needs, identify strengths and weaknesses, and help them to realize their full potential.

Joseph Aveni, MEd. is a veteran of the computer industry and adjunct Professor for Norwalk Community College in the computer sciences department. Mr. Aveni is proficient in Microsoft Access, PowerPoint, Excel, and Word.

Richard Barbour is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and Michigan State University. He is currently the Chef Teacher at Brien McMahon High School. With over 35 years of culinary experience, he has led and managed the kitchens for The "21" Club and the Rainbow Room and has directed food and beverage activities for restaurants and hotels including positions at The Pierre, Regency and Plaza Hotels, the SoHo Wine Bar and Westchester Brewing Company.

Mark Basil, CPP, is a former member of the U.S. Secret Service and CPP (Certified Protection Professional) through ASIS International. Along with having written a security manual and several published articles, Mark’s diverse expertise enables him to continue to provide high-level industry development, training, and consultation to all sectors of the security field.

Celia M. Batan, B.A. M.A. CPC, has designed and implemented skills training programs across vertical markets for various industries in the US, Canada, and Asia overseeing instructional methodology and business writing materials for publication. Communication programs include problem-solving and decision making, job coaching and interviewing, listening, writing, and presentation skills in academic and workplace environments. She is the author of a book on cursive writing and child brain development, The Two-Digit Revolution, 2018.

Michael Behar, Ph.D., is the founder and CEO of Foresight Technologies Corp., a firm that specializes in developing business simulations that help companies, managers, and employees improve team performance, provide better customer service, make better decisions, and generally have more fun.

Gigi Benanti, B.A., is a certified Reiki Master Healer and teacher and a member of the International Association of Reiki Professionals. She has been a lifelong healer, teaches Reiki and owns the Angelic Healing Center in Norwalk. She is a popular teacher among adults seeking routes to spiritual understanding.

Jim Bergesen, M.F.A., is an artist and curator. He teaches studio art and photography at Norwalk Community College and Manhattanville College, as well as contemporary art history and museum studies.

Alice Bianco, a deaf instructor, has taught American Sign Language for over 15 years to people of all ages in Fairfield County.

Richard Barbour is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and Michigan State University. He is currently the Chef Teacher at Brien McMahon High School. With over 35 years of culinary experience, he has led and managed the kitchens for The "21" Club and the Rainbow Room and has directed food and beverage activities for restaurants and hotels including positions at The Pierre, Regency and Plaza Hotels, the SoHo Wine Bar and Westchester Brewing Company.

Mark Basil, CPP, is a former member of the U.S. Secret Service and CPP (Certified Protection Professional) through ASIS International. Along with having written a security manual and several published articles, Mark’s diverse expertise enables him to continue to provide high-level industry development, training, and consultation to all sectors of the security field.

Celia M. Batan, B.A. M.A. CPC, has designed and implemented skills training programs across vertical markets for various industries in the US, Canada, and Asia overseeing instructional methodology and business writing materials for publication. Communication programs include problem-solving and decision making, job coaching and interviewing, listening, writing, and presentation skills in academic and workplace environments. She is the author of a book on cursive writing and child brain development, The Two-Digit Revolution, 2018.

Michael Behar, Ph.D., is the founder and CEO of Foresight Technologies Corp., a firm that specializes in developing business simulations that help companies, managers, and employees improve team performance, provide better customer service, make better decisions, and generally have more fun.

Gigi Benanti, B.A., is a certified Reiki Master Healer and teacher and a member of the International Association of Reiki Professionals. She has been a lifelong healer, teaches Reiki and owns the Angelic Healing Center in Norwalk. She is a popular teacher among adults seeking routes to spiritual understanding.

Jim Bergesen, M.F.A., is an artist and curator. He teaches studio art and photography at Norwalk Community College and Manhattanville College, as well as contemporary art history and museum studies.

Alice Bianco, a deaf instructor, has taught American Sign Language for over 15 years to people of all ages in Fairfield County.

Janeen Bjork is a television researcher who applies the detective, analytic and presentation skills she gained in a 30-year career to her family tree and then to the trees of others. She teaches Genealogy classes in Connecticut and New York.

Mariana Bolgova, Ph.D., is a native Russian speaker. She has taught Russian as a second language at schools and colleges for 20 years. She holds a Ph.D. in Russian Literature.

Monique Bosch trained in landscape design and horticulture. She has built over 40 edible school and community gardens and a two-acre urban farm in Bridgeport, CT, teaching community members and youth how to grow nutrient dense food.

David N. Boyajian, M.F.A., is a noted sculptor who works in a variety of scales and materials. Following 20 years of teaching sculpture at the Silvermine School of Art, he co-founded Sculpture Barn in New Fairfield, CT where he teaches metal, stone, and wood sculpture. He has been teaching at Norwalk Community College since 1999.

Stewart Bronfeld was a staff producer-writer and director for the NBC Television Network for 18 years. In addition to producing and directing, he has written many television programs, as well as short films released by Columbia Pictures and Universal Pictures. His work has won two International Broadcasting Awards from the Hollywood Radio and Television Society and an Emmy Award nomination.

Dave Broida is a seasoned teacher/performer for the past 20 years who loves to share music with all—especially those who do not consider themselves musical.

Xuemei Cao is a native Chinese speaker and has been teaching Chinese in the U.S. for over 6 years. She received a B.S. in Biology Education from Nanjing Normal University and worked as a teaching assistant at Southeastern University Medical School for two years. Ms. Cao loves to blend Chinese tradition and culture into her students’ learning process. Her teaching experience adds value to her classroom.

Domenic Carriero, A.S., is employed with nuTravel Technology Solutions, a software development company specializing in the travel industry. He has broad experience in the travel industry in such areas as ARC accounting, reservations, computer management, and general administration.
Patrick Cassidy, M.S., is the coordinator for the Computer Security degree program at Norwalk Community College. He is also the main contact for Norwalk Community College’s Cisco Academy.

Ann Marie Castro is a Level II Phlebotomist/Trainer and holds both NHA Certification as well as ASCP Certification. With over five years devoted to the practice of Phlebotomy, she takes a hands-on approach to teach the skills needed to perform phlebotomy successfully. Anne Marie is a Lead Tech/Scheduler and is involved with all aspects of administration and training for more than 40 phlebotomists in more than 27 locations.

Brenda Catugno, ChFC, CDFA, CASL is President of BPC, LLC. in Fairfield, CT. Brenda specializes in financial planning, portfolio management, divorce financial analysis and offers a wide variety of solutions to meet her client’s needs.

Dina Chappell is a Registered Medical Assistant and has over 13 years’ experience in a health care setting, specializing in phlebotomy. She works at Stamford Hospital as a phlebotomy supervisor and community health and education trainer.

Kaili Chen, originally from Taiwan, is the principal dancer with the Hang Tang Yuefu dance group and has appeared at renowned performing arts centers such as Lincoln Center, The Joyce Theatre, Théâtre de la Ville, Paris, appearing in more than 30 countries. She is a highly regarded and popular dance artist in Asia.

Penny Cohen, LCSW Transformational Psychotherapist, Relationship Expert, Career, Life and Spiritual Coach has a private practice in Pound Ridge, NY. She has lectured and presented workshops internationally on stress management, relationships, communication, creativity, spirituality, and Kabbalah for the past 15 years. She is the author of Personal Kabbalah: 32 Paths to Inner Peace and Life Purpose. She works with individuals, couples, and groups to help achieve personal, relational and professional success and fulfillment.

Louis J Colangelo, Jr., J.D., is an attorney in Norwalk who has over 40 years of experience in Real Estate Law and has been an instructor at Norwalk Community College for over 12 years.

Valerie A. Cooper, M.B.A., from Columbia University and Certificate in Appraisal Studies in Fine and Decorative Arts from New York University. She is the Founding Principal of Picture That Art Consulting Firm and teaches Public Speaking at Norwalk Community College and for other private entities. Valerie is an Accredited Member of the Appraisers Association of America where her specialty is African American Art. She has over 25 years of art advisory, curatorial services, teaching and cultural inclusion experience in the fine art industry. She is a former Wall Street Technologist with 20 years of experience.

Kathleen Coppola is a professor and former coordinator of the Early Childhood Program at Norwalk Community College. She was responsible for coordinating the CDA (Child Development Associate Credential) program as well as the courses in Leadership and Administration, which leads to the CDC (Connecticut Director’s Credential). She is currently teaching classes in child development and administration at NCC. Prior to joining NCC, she was the Director of The New Canaan Community Preschool School in New Canaan CT. She has over 30 years’ experience in administration, supervision, and leadership of early childhood programs.

Matt Cousins, B.A., is a tutor and teacher with more than a decade of experience.

Jennifer Covello, MBA, is an award-winning author of the My Life baby journal, blogger and speaker. Prior to becoming a freelance writer and marketing consultant, she had a 25+ year career in IT and Marketing.

Elizabeth Craig, Advanced Master Gardener, is an Advanced Master Gardener interested in promoting native landscapes for wildlife habitat. Liz is on the steering committee of the Pollinator Pathway, Co-chair of the Wilton Garden Club’s Conservation Committee, and a member of the Wilton Inland Wetland Commission.

Kerry V. Cramer, M.S., is an information technology professional with 35 years’ experience in computer programming, information technologies, and IT project management. He has been a Norwalk Community College Computer Science instructor for over 10 years, as well as an adjunct professor at Manhattanville College, and the University of New Haven.

Margaret Dana-Conway has taught at Norwalk Community College for over 19 years, nine of which she was Director of the Kathryn Croaning Child Development Laboratory School. She presented numerous courses regarding infant toddler development and care and represents Norwalk Community College on a state-wide committee devoted to educating faculty, administrators, managers, social workers and other professionals about infant-toddler care and advocacy. Margaret has served on the Norwalk School Readiness Council.

CT Pharmacists Association, Established in 1876, the Connecticut Pharmacists Association (CPA) is a voluntary professional society open to all licensed pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, pharmacy students, and others interested in furthering its objectives. CPA’s mission is to advance the practice and interests of pharmacy in the State of Connecticut. This course is taught by multiple pharmacists and members of the CPA.

Christopher Dabbo is a Connecticut-based pianist and piano instructor. He received his B.M. from the Hartt School of Music, University of Hartford, and his M.M. from the Rudi E. Scheidt School of Music, University of Memphis. He has had a professional career in music since age 16 by collaborating with a number of musical projects on stage and in the studio. Some of his recording and performance credits have been with Southern Comfort Jazz Orchestra, Aaron Neville, Deana Martin, Empire, The Trio Collective, and Ghost Town Blues Band. He has been teaching for over 15 years.

Estelle V. Dattolo, M.A., has been teaching Italian at Norwalk Community College for ten years. She received her M.A. in Foreign Languages at the University of Messina, (Sicily), Italy.

Paul Daulerio, Ph.D., served as President of Texaco Global Aviation Marketing, with responsibility for the worldwide marketing of Texaco’s aviation fuels to the airline industry. He is currently an adjunct professor at Fairfield University’s Dolan School of Business and at Norwalk Community College, where he teaches various undergraduate business management courses.
Gary Del Vecchio, MBA, Former President and CEO of Doubleday Book Shops, Financial and MIS Director of Southwestern Connecticut Agency on Aging. He has over 40 years of real-world financial management experience, and 15 years of teaching Accounting and Finance at Norwalk Community College.

Andrea Dener, also known as The Yarn Farmer, is a Craft Yarn Council Certified Instructor who loves to knit and crochet for others and loves to share her passion for knitting and crocheting with others as well. She’s been crocheting since she was about ten years old and is looking forward to helping you get in touch with your Inner Crocheter!

Stefania DiGiuseppe, B.A., is a native Italian speaker with years of teaching experience at all levels, including children and adults, both in private and group settings.

Steve Digiovanni, MFA, is a professional artist and instructor. He has exhibited throughout the region and is included in numerous private collections, as well as the New Britain Museum of American Art. He has completed portraits for the Yale University and other private and professional clients. Steven teaches at the Creative Arts Workshop in New Haven and as an adjunct professor at Norwalk Community College.

Li Ding, M.A. is a native Chinese speaker and has taught Chinese at the Chinese Language School of Fairfield County in Stamford for two years.

Laura Dotta works in a veterinary hospital as an Internal Medicine Liaison. She received her degree as Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Technology from the University of Veterinary Medicine in Uruguay, South America.

Harry A. Downs II, EMT-P, EMS-I, has been a field paramedic at Norwalk Hospital for 30 years and has over 40 years of experience in pre-hospital emergency care. He has been an EMS instructor for 30 years and is the primary EMT-Basic instructor at Norwalk Community College.

Thomas Duffy is the Chair of the Computer Science Department and the Program Coordinator for the Computer Science degree. He teaches courses in Web Development, XML, and Java. He holds a B.S. in Mathematics and Master of Arts in Mathematics/Computer Science from Western Connecticut State University and is the owner of Bright Moments Software - a software company specializing in Web Technologies.

Joseph Durso, B.S., is a licensed Veterinary Technician and AALAS Certified Laboratory Animal Technologist.

Mervyn Edwards, M.S., a professor of mathematics, holds multiple degrees in various academic disciplines. He has been a longstanding contributor of student success and has had a distinguished career (20+ years) in academia--both as an administrator and member of faculty. He is also a mathematics consultant and has been awarded for his research in mathematics. His focus: Applied Mathematics.

William E. Erickson JD is a technology attorney and entrepreneur who has held executive legal and business roles at industry innovators such as MCI, IBM, BearingPoint, Kroll, and Accenture. He is a graduate of the New York University School of Law, where he was a Root-Tilden Scholar and the University of Colorado at Denver. He is currently an advisor and counsel to an AI startup in Ridgefield, Connecticut, and a block-chain software and applications company in London.

Joseph Fama, B.S., has exhibited nationally and has worked as an art director for several advertising agencies in New York City. He has designed Christmas ornaments for Christopher Radko as well as illustration for several magazines.

Karen Fecenko-Lyon, M.A., has been working in the graphic design field for over 25 years. Her career has spanned from editorial graphics and art direction with Golf Digest/ The New York Times to corporate graphics and management with GE Capital. She is now principal of Beauregard and Partners, LLC.

Lawrence Frank, B.A., is an alumnus of the Art Center College of Design and the University of Connecticut. His background includes fine art and commercial photography and he currently does lifestyle photo assignments for corporate, editorial and advertising clients.

Sisi Ferine, BS, BA, is an entrepreneur, lifelong learner and an affiliate of the Learning Strategies Corp. who is the creator of Rapid Reading. She has been a facilitator of Learning Strategies courses since 2015.

Erin J. Fitzgerald RN, BSN, MBA, has over 34 years of hospital experience and has taught in the medical field for 25 of those years. She currently works in a local hospital in the clinical setting.

Nancy Follis, Ed.M. has been an Entrepreneur, Trainer & Coach, and a Certified Yoga Teacher for over 20 years. With a graduate degree from Harvard University in the field of Behavioral Change, she became Founder and CEO of her own training and consulting company. Her company designed and delivered corporate training programs and events to help improve employee performance, productivity, and well-being on the job. In addition, she has spoken at international conferences, been interviewed on radio talk shows, and was a featured expert on CBS NEWS. Her course is based on Harvard University’s most popular class taught by Tal Ben Shahar, Ph.D., which explores the question of happiness and the field of positive psychology.

Jill Russo Foster is the author of three financial books about practical know-how. She has extensive experience in banking, mortgage, and higher education. She makes learning about financial information fun and understandable by presenting real-world examples and practical advice that anyone can immediately put into action.

Joseph T. Fucigna, M.F.A. is an award-winning artist and the Coordinator of the Norwalk Community College Art Programs. He has taught drawing, sculpture, and design in the Norwalk Community College Art Program for over 15 years.

Paul Gallo, EdD, ATC, CES, HFS, CSCS, Director of Exercise Science and Wellness at Norwalk Community College. Paul lectures in the above programs and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, Health Fitness Specialist, Clinical Exercise Specialist and Certified Athletic Trainer with a background working with many different populations in clinical and athletic exercise/rehabilitative settings.

Jinal Ganatra, B.D.S, RHS, graduated from K.M. Shah Dental College in India with a degree in dentistry. She has practiced as a dentist in India and is currently working as a Supervisor at Columbia Dental.

Joyce Generoso is a certified Stott Pilates instructor, AFAA CPT and Post Rehabilitative Breast Cancer Exercise Specialist and is trained in injured and special populations with 15+ years’ experience. She teaches in fitness centers and YMCAs in Fairfield County as well as private instruction in her home studio. She enjoys helping clients obtain remarkable results in this mind-body exercise method.
Edward Grippe, Ph.D. has been a teacher for more than 40 years. He is a published Philosophy professor and has been at Norwalk Community College for 20 years. He is currently Chair of the Humanities Department.

Solange Gomez, M.A., in Languages, teaches Spanish at Norwalk Community College.

Rita Horan CMA, EdD, has over 25 years of administrative experience in the business office and taught accredited Information Technology classes. She has worked in a clinical setting for the past three years.

Julie Jason, JD, LLM, Founder of Jackson, Grant Investment Advisers, Inc. of Stamford, got her start on Wall Street 30 years ago as a securities lawyer. Her award-winning investor education column, in its 17th year of publication, appears every Sunday in the business section of four Connecticut newspapers and is syndicated nationally by King Features. Julie’s book, The AARP Retirement Survival Guide: How to Make Smart Financial Decisions in Good Times & Bad, was named as one of the Top Ten Business Books for 2010 by Booklist. Her latest book, Managing Retirement Wealth: An Expert Guide to Personal Portfolio Management in Good Times and Bad, won the prestigious EIFLE award for excellence in financial education.

Karen Jewell is certified as a fitness trainer, speed and agility coach, golf fitness trainer, endurance trainer, fitness therapist, and SUP (Stand Up Paddle Boarding) Instructor. She studied Springfield Physical Education and Recreation at Springfield College and has participated in a variety of sports including golf, softball, basketball, field hockey, tennis, cycling, and track. She combines the elements of both fitness and skill training for the most comprehensive workouts and brings a wealth of knowledge and hands-on experience to her programs. As a result, her clients experience the highest level of conditioning and sport specific training possible. She developed the "Par 3" Golf Fitness Training Program and has seen great success with the results of her clients.

Ping Jin is a native Chinese speaker and has been teaching Chinese to young children over four years.

Dominique Johnson, Ph.D., is a public media producer and podcaster who helps people share their stories. Dominique works in public radio and also produces public affairs and music programs for digital media, especially podcasting and online streaming.

Stephen B. Keogh, Esq., is an attorney practicing with the firm of Keogh, Burkhardt & Vetter in Norwalk since 1985. He holds a B.A. from Yale College and a J.D. from Columbia Law School and concentrates his practice in Elder Law and Probate Law.

Robert B. Keyes, J.D., is a Norwalk attorney practicing for more than 16 years in the field of civil litigation and workers’ compensation law. He was a member of the Norwalk Zoning Commission for more than eight years and is a court arbitrator and fact-finder for the Superior Court for the State of Connecticut.

Beatrice M. Krawiecki, Ed.D., has been an adjunct in the early childhood program at Norwalk Community College for over 25 years teaching The Exceptional Learner, a course that focuses on children with special needs. In addition, she is currently a Special Education Administrator with the Norwalk Board of Education. Dr. Krawiecki holds a Doctorate in the field of no-categorical special education, Columbia Teachers College.

Nancy Kroszner, RN, LNHA, MBA has worked as a Registered Nurse for over 30 years in both Acute Care and Long-Term Care settings. As an RN she has held the positions of Director of Nursing, Facility Educator, and Case Manager. Nancy received her License as a Nursing Home Administrator in 2003 and since that time has been employed in several Fairfield County Skilled Nursing homes as the Licensed Administrator. In 2011 Nancy received her Masters in Business Administration from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, CT.

Regina Krummel, Ed.D., is a published writer, poet, and author of Looking Good, Liquor to Casket and The Underground Woman (2002). Her book of poetry entitled And I Answer was published in 2007. She is Professor Emerita of Queens College, City University of New York.

Sutushi Lang has been offering meditation classes for over 25 years throughout Fairfield County and New York. She has studied with Sri Chinmoy, originally from India, who has led meditations at the United Nations.

Bing Li, M.S. is a native Chinese speaker and has taught Chinese at Huaxia Chinese Language School in White Plains for five years. He has been teaching Chinese for more than six years in the USA, and currently is teaching Mandarin Chinese at a public middle school.

Jack Lee is an accomplished marketer and business development professional. For over 20 years he has engaged with a variety of Fortune 500 companies and a host of small/medium sized business organizations. He has consulted and worked within numerous industries including consumer-packaged goods, financial services, technology, retail/e-commerce, pharmaceuticals and more.

Suzanne Joy Leonard settled in the states from England after traveling the globe as a professional dancer and has been working in the fitness industry for 14 years. She holds licenses in Zumba® ZumbaTonic® Gold® Toning® and Aqua zumba®. Suzanne is also a certified personal trainer, Stott Pilates instructor, and Drums Alive instructor.

Jonathan Bogin Levine, MBA, is a third-generation business owner in Fairfield County, with over thirty years of experience in business management and finance. He has owned and managed several wholesale, and retail businesses.

Evan Lister is a professional mortgage advisor practicing in Connecticut and has been in financial services for over ten years. He is a reverse mortgage planner and military mortgage specialist.

Richard Malloy, M.B.A., works as a computer consultant based in Greenwich, CT. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor at Norwalk Community College, where he teaches computer applications. He is a Microsoft-certified Expert in Excel and Word and also has MOS-certified proficiency in Access, PowerPoint, and Outlook. Previously Rich served as Executive Editor of Byte magazine and Editor in Chief of Mobile Computing Magazine.

Claire Mancini has been in the travel industry for over 30 years. She has a passion for cruising and stresses the importance of customer service to her students.

Sue A. Mariano is an Intuit Advanced Certified QuickBooks ProAdvisor in both the online and desktop versions of QuickBooks. She is the owner of a consulting firm, where she collaborates with small business owners to empower them to use QuickBooks the best way for their unique business.
Lisa M. Maronian is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and the International Pastry Arts Center. She has been a pastry chef at the Ritz Carlton in Naples, Florida, Le Relais Mougin Restaurant in Palm Beach, and is the owner of Sweet Lisa's Exquisite Cakes in Connecticut. She is a member of The International Cake Exploration Society, as well a member of The American Culinary Federation.

Dorota Matys, BFA, earned a BFA degree from the Maryland Institute College of Art in Baltimore, MD. She has worked in design and decorative arts in Fairfield County since 1998. She often collaborates with decorators, architects, and homeowners to create unique effects, finishes, and techniques that complement the decor, as well as the architectural and historical character of the interiors. In addition to her design and decorative painting work, Dorota is a fine artist who paints out of her studio space in Norwalk, CT. Dorota launched the Upper Room Art Studio in 2015, and since then the space has drawn other artists to participate as collaborators in artistic exploration, experimental learning, and fine art making.

Yumi McCarthy, M.A., in TESOL/Linguistics, is a native speaker of Japanese and has taught at universities in Japan. She also has a teaching certificate in Japanese calligraphy.

Cheryl McGuire, MBA, is an accountant who has worked with many businesses of varying sizes to streamline their accounting. She holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Penn State. She has been teaching QuickBooks for nine years in the credit division at Norwalk Community College.

Richard Mancini, B. S. has more than three decades of theatrical experience as an actor and director of both comedy and drama in Connecticut theatres. Having staged some 40 main stage productions, along with numerous original one-acts in festivals in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New York, he was also a founding member of the local improv/sketch groups Acid Reflux and Moving Targets. As a writer, his humor/comedy experience has ranged from short films, articles, web, and print advertising copy to radio commercial spots, song parodies, comedy sketches, and an original musical revue.

Christine Mangone holds a Ph.D. in theater from UCLA and has directed over 40 productions. She has directed theater programs at Penn State University and Naugatuck Valley Community College and is currently an instructor of both music and theater here at Norwalk Community College.

Dorota Matys, Certified AFT Practioner, Certified AFT Practioner is a passionate educator of all aspects of essential oil as they pertain to wellness and a toxin-free lifestyle. As a Certified Practitioner of Aroma Freedom Technique (AFT), Dorota uses the power of scent to welcome a positive outlook on life and shift the focus from negative thoughts, feelings, and memories. She is also versed in the roles that essential oils have in strengthening emotional and physical wellness. She has an extensive background in applied aromatherapy techniques including Raindrop, Vitaflex, and Emotional Release and the AFT Technique.

Nicole Mendola, MS, RCEP, EP-C, EIM III, GEI, MS, RCEP, EP-C, EIM III, GEI is a lecturer in Exercise Science. She is also a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, a Registered Clinical Exercise Physiologist, certified Exercise Physiologist, Exercise is Medicine Ambassador and a certified Group Exercise Instructor.

Amanda Morgado, BA, is a licensed real estate broker in Connecticut and New York who has over eight years of experience in the banking, legal, and real estate industry.

Cynthia Mullins, J.D., has taught in Norwalk Community College’s Legal Assisting/Paralegal program for 16 years and currently teaches in the online MBA program for the University of Bridgeport Trefz School of Business. She serves as Legal Counsel and Chief HR Officer for JMW Consultants Inc., a global management consulting and executive education firm.

Thomas Nackid, M.T.S.C. is an illustrator and graphic designer with more than 16 years of experience in publishing, journalism and educational materials. He holds a Master’s Degree in technical and scientific communications from Miami University’s MTSC program.

Elizabeth Nagurney, BA, MLS, CAS, is an educator with extensive experience in teaching a wide range of computer classes.

Elizabeth O'Connell, B.A., is a care coordinator at Jewish Senior Services and was a care manager at the Southwestern Connecticut Agency on Aging for eleven years.

Carey Parks-Schwartz, MA, is an award-winning painter who has exhibited her work throughout the U.S. and is included in numerous private and corporate collections. She holds an M.A. in Art from SJSU and dual B.A. degrees in Art and Zoology from the UCSB. Carey has taught painting and drawing classes for over 20 years at the Silvermine School of Art.

Bobo Peng, B.A., has worked as a journalist in Beijing after she got her bachelor’s degree in mass communication. She has been teaching Chinese in the U.S. for four years at a local Chinese School, as well as teaching painting and drawing to kids and adults. Ms. Peng loves to encourage and inspire students during their learning process. Her teaching experience makes her classroom a fun place to go.

Michael L. Perretta, BS, RN, EMT-P, CEN, has over 15-year medical office management experience and has taught for Norwalk Community College for nine years. He has worked in a clinical setting for the past 33 years.

Karena Piedmont is a licensed real estate broker in Connecticut and has over 10 years of experience in real estate education. She is also the owner of Real Estate University in Norwalk and Stamford.

Judith Puchalski, M.B.A., is the owner of JP Business Consulting, providing bookkeeping and small business consultative services to a diverse group of Connecticut based businesses. She has over 30 years of business experience with for-profit and nonprofit organizations and has assisted many businesses grow from start-up into thriving organizations.

Paul Rich is the owner of a professional bartending program, a hands-on course for those seeking to become professional bartenders, and has over 20 years of experience in the bartending service industry.

Hans Rieke, Ph.D., has been working as the project manager and product manager for technology companies and digital agencies in Europe and the U.S. since 1995. He is a Certified Scrum Master (CSM) and a Certified Product Owner (CPO).
John Robert is a computer programmer, who likes to learn about open source software and hardware. He is the founder of Rippowam Labs, a tech education group based in Stamford.

Anthony Romeo, M.S., is a CPA with over 32 years of experience in public and private accounting.

Lt. Thomas Roncinske, M.S. (Justice & Law Administration), of the Norwalk Police Department is a 30- year veteran and commanding officer of the Special Victims Unit (SVU). Lt. Roncinske is a supervisor with the department's Emergency Services Unit and is a former Field Training Officer. As a detective, he investigated cases ranging from homicides to narcotics. He is an adjunct professor of Criminal Justice at Norwalk Community College as well as Sacred Heart University.

Dr. Maria Sciudone, DMD, Ph.D., is a Board Certified Pediatric Dentist with Tooth Fairy Pediatric Dentistry in Ridgefield, CT. She received her B.S. in Dietetics and Ph.D. in Nutrition and Molecular Biology from UCONN before returning to the University Of Connecticut School Of Dental Medicine.

Lei Shi, M.A. was born and raised in Beijing, China, and speaks fluent Mandarin. She received her B.A. degree in English Language and Literature at Beijing Normal University and M.A. degree in Educational Psychology at the University of Connecticut. She taught English at Tsinghua University for 3 years.

Joan Singer, B.A., is a computer consultant with many years of experience teaching computer courses on all types of equipment, from mainframes to PCs.

Valerie Sioufas-Lalli holds graduate and undergraduate degrees in art history, fine arts and museum education. She has worked in several museums and art galleries in NYC. Her passion is to bring the history of art to life for all of her audiences and has been teaching art history at Norwalk Community College for over two years.

Nora Spaulding has been teaching fitness classes in Fairfield County for the past 20 years and received her instructor certifications from the Aerobic Training Institute and AFAA. Brimming with energy and experience, she has taught at various area fitness facilities, YMCAs and currently a number of different classes at LA Fitness in Norwalk.

Daniel Sullivan, Ed.D., has been a counselor and chairperson of the Counseling Department at Norwalk high school for 23 years. He also serves as an adjunct professor in the graduate school at Fairfield University. Dr. Sullivan sits on several college and community boards and has extensive knowledge with college placement.

Laura Toffler, MFA, is an award-winning author of middle grade and young adult books. She holds an MFA from NYU Tisch School of the Arts and teaches literature and writing at Pace University.

Jeff Trombetta is currently Norwalk Community College’s full-time Culinary Arts Professor. He has taught at the prestigious New England Culinary Institute and the University of New Haven. Prior to teaching, Chef Jeff was Executive Chef of Yale University’s Dining Services. He is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America. He has studied abroad in France and Italy. His experience encompasses executive chef of country clubs and fine dining establishments.

Nadia Udler, M.S., is an adjunct professor at Fordham University, Graduate School of Business, where she teaches Computer Simulation Applications for Finance. She has over 20 years of experience in software development for the Financial Industry. She received M.S. in Applied Mathematics and Computer Science from Voronezh University, Russia.

Pascale Van Tulder is a native French speaker. She was raised in Belgium and France where she worked in marketing before moving to the U.S. She has been teaching French classes at Norwalk Community College for the last four years. She emphasizes all cultural aspects of a language in her teaching.

Denise N. Walsh is a faculty assistant in the Norwalk Community College Physical Therapist Assistant program. She has an extensive background in outpatient orthopedic and in-patient short-term and long-term rehab settings.

Qiaoyun Wang Graduated from Mian Yang Institute of Tech, majoring in computer science and worked for 13 years as a software engineer. After moving to the US, she spent 2 years as a Chinese language assistant in New Canaan Saxe middle school and also worked as a substitute Chinese teacher in Chinese language school of CT. She speaks native standard Mandarin and has a great passion to teach young children not only language but also Chinese culture.

Keith Weston, A+ certified, Cisco certified, has been a Technical Education Teacher for 18 years at A.I.T.E. He is an instructor in A+ Certification, Intro to programming, Studio production, GIS, CCNA Preparation, Life Skills, as well as “Build It”, an after-school technology program.

David Wonsey, B.M., is currently the Principal Percussionist and Timpanist of the Ridgefield Symphony and is a founding member of WoMaDe, a world percussion ensemble. He is an adjunct professor at Marymount College and Fordham University where he teaches drumming and the History of Rock ‘n Roll and plays classical, jazz and all genres of American popular music.

Brad Yonkers, A.S., is a registered architect with his own practice. He has been involved with AutoCAD since 1989.

Jeanne Yusko is an instructor trainer with the American Red Cross.

Wei (Vicky) Zhang, M.B.A. is a native Chinese speaker from Beijing and teaches Chinese in the College for Kids program.