

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form

We understand that unexpected events can impact a student's studies. For students who lost financial aid eligibility due to not meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements, an appeal may be submitted if the cause was due to an extenuating circumstance. Such matters include, but are not limited to: serious injury or illness, hospitalization, death of a relative, or other undue hardship. All appeals are reviewed by a committee and responded to within 14 days of receipt, in writing. Decisions rendered by the committee are final and cannot be appealed. If approved, your financial aid will be reinstated on the condition that certain academic requirements be met to maintain eligibility. If denied, you will remain ineligible for financial aid and will be responsible for any charges associated with your enrollment. The SAP Policy is located at <https://www.ct.edu/files/pdfs/FinancialAid-SAP-Policy.pdf>.

Submitting an appeal does not guarantee reinstatement of financial aid. Only one appeal may be submitted per term.
